Leader

65 What makes Techtextil so important for the man-made fiber industry  R. Werner

Industry News

68 Global man-made fiber production: further increasing Chinese domination
69 Swiss textile industry: ongoing uncertainties
70 Indorama’s successful strategy in the high value-added segment
70 Lenzing: sale of Dolan and ECF
71 Indian textiles review (PCI Fibres)
72 DuraFiber Technologies: new name for an established fiber producer
73 54th Dornbirn Man-Made Fibers Congress
74-78 Management
74 JEC: study on carbon fiber
75 AGY: glass fiber expansion
77 Reifenhäuser: acquisition of Enka Tecnica
77 Dienes Apparatebau: strategic alliance with Rauschert
79 Nonwovens production in Greater Europe +4.7% in 2014
80 Freudenberg: further profitable growth and new structure
82-84 International news

Achema Preview

86-89 Preview on fiber machinery related exhibits at the Achema 2015

Raw Materials

90 Reliance: polyester expansion in India
90 BASF: 150th anniversary

Fibers

95 Hagfish slime fiber: new source of biomaterial  T. Karthik, P. Ganesan
98 Polyamide fibers to year 2020  P. Hart
99 Comparison properties of selected inorganic fibers  M. Novotná
102 High-temperature filament yarn  M. Dauner, M. Hoss, G.T. Gresser
105 High-tenacity textile cellulose fibers from ionic liquid solutions  M. Hummel, A. Michud, S. Asaadi, Y. Ma, H. Sixta, M. Tanttu, E. Netti

Fiber Production

108 Innovative solutions for HMLS polyester yarn (Oerlikon Barmag)
109 Dissolving technology for very good fiber quality  A. Diener, L. Oppermann
110 Textile bio-fibers from almond shells and other waste from farm production  B. Mougin

Techtextil Review

113-119 Review on fiber, fiber machinery and nonwovens related exhibits at the Techtextil 2015

Inside back cover Advertisers Index/Company Index
Inside back cover Imprint